The Million Dollar Advocates Forum is pleased to announce that attorney Sean M Cleary of Miami FL has been certified as a life member of both the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum.

The Million Dollar Advocates Forum is recognized as one of the most prestigious groups of trial lawyers in the United States. Membership is limited to attorneys who have won million and multi-million dollar verdicts, awards and settlements. The organization was founded in 1993 and there are approximately 4000 members located throughout the country. Fewer than 1% of U.S. lawyers are members. Forum membership acknowledges excellence in advocacy, and provides members with a national network of experienced colleagues for professional referral and information exchange in major cases. Members of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum must have acted as principal counsel in at least one case in which their client has received a verdict, award or settlement in the amount of one million dollars or more.

Members of the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum must be Life Members of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and must have acted as principal counsel in at least one case which has resulted in a multi-million dollar verdict, award or settlement. Mr. Cleary has been approved for membership in both the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum.

Sean M Cleary is a graduate of University of Miami School of Law and specializes in defective products litigation, personal injury, resort and maritime injury, and commercial litigation.

For further information regarding membership and qualifications, see www.MillionDollarAdvocates.com. The Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum was established in 2007. There are members of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum (established 1993) who may have had multi-million dollar cases but who have not applied for membership in the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum although they may be qualified. Membership in the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum is not intended to imply that a member of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum may not have had multi-million dollar cases.

Re: Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum Membership

Dear Mr. Cleary:

Your application for membership in the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum has been approved. Enclosed are your certificates of membership. Additional certificates (for branch offices, etc.) are available; please see the Forum website for details. Also enclosed is a press release announcing your membership. Members have asked that we issue such a release so that they may provide it to their local and regional newspapers, bar associations, clients and referring attorneys, etc. Most newspapers run regular "People In Business" types of columns for which such information is well suited. You may wish to submit the press release to such publications together with additional biographical or case-related information and a photograph. Newspapers are likely to be interested in the details of the case(s) which qualified you for membership. Many newspapers have run full feature articles on members and their successful practices.

Membership invitations are sent only to attorneys who objectively appear to be qualified, including those who have had published reports of major cases and those who are proposed for membership by current members. If you know of other trial lawyers who may be qualified and interested in membership, please send us their names and we will send them an application, advising them that you have proposed their names for membership.

Logo

Members are allowed to use the logos and other trademarks of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum and the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum to identify themselves as members on stationery, cards, advertising, websites, etc. However, please see the complete terms of use at the Forum website www.MillionDollarAdvocates.com. Permission to use the logos is limited as stated in such terms (several different logo formats appear at the website).

(Optional) Member Website Links on Member List

In response to member requests, members may have their law firm name and a direct link to their firm website added to the online member list (for an annual fee). Details may be found at the Forum website. If you already elected to have such a listing, it has been done.

Best wishes for your continued success.

Very truly yours,

Donald F. Costello, President
